WOMEN FROM THE MARGINS

An Orbis Series Highlighting Women's Theological Voices

Women from the Margins introduces a series of books that present women's theological voices from around the world. As has long been recognized, women have shaped and continue to shape theology in distinctive ways that recognize both the particular challenges and the particular gifts that women bring to the world of theology and to ministry within the church. Their theological voices reflect the culture in which they live and the religious practices that permeate their lives.

Also in the Series:

Grant Me Justice! HIV/AIDS and Gender Readings of the Bible, Musa W.

Dube and Musimbi Kanyoro, editors

Korean Women and God, Choi Hee An

Ecofeminism in Latin America, Mary Judith Ress

African Women, Religion and Health: Essays in Honor of Mercy Amba

Ewudziwa Oduyoye, Isabel Apawo Phiri and Sarojini Nadar, editors

The Jesus of Asian Women, Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro

Female Circumcision, Mary Nyangweso Wangila

Founded in 1970, Orbis Books endeavors to publish works that enlighten the mind, nourish the spirit, and challenge the conscience. The publishing arm of the Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers, Orbis seeks to explore the global dimensions of the Christian faith and mission, to invite dialogue with diverse cultures and religious traditions, and to serve the cause of reconciliation and peace. The books published reflect the views of their authors and do not represent the official position of the Maryknoll Society.
